Apollo Healthtech Eyes Listing by Jan-March 2027 to Unlock Value

Our Bureau

Mumbai: Apollo Healthtech, the demerged omni-channel pharmacy and digital health business of Apollo Hospitals—the country's largest pan India hospital chain by revenue—is likely to get listed by Jan-Mar of 2027, a top company official said.

On being asked if there is any hint of a family reorganisation, Krishnan Akhileswaran, group chief financial officer, told ET, “No there isn’t. It’s just a value unlock for the shareholders. The promoters of Apollo will also be promoters of the new company and they will also be directors in the new company. So, there is no change from that standpoint. It is really about value unlock for the shareholders.”

Apollo Hospitals announced its first quarter results post market hours on Tuesday. It reported a 42% year-on-year increase in first quarter consolidated net profit to ₹433 crore driven by double-digit growth in all its business segments. Revenues for the quarter ended June grew 15% YoY to ₹5,842 crore driven by higher patient volumes and increase in diagnostic footprint. The company reported 26% increase in Ebitda to ₹852 crore.

During the quarter, Apollo Hospitals announced the de-mergeswaran, group chief financial officer, told ET, “The application to the stock exchanges have been already made and once their approval is received, we can file to the CCI and NCLT simultaneously. We expect the listing to happen around Jan-Mar of 2027. Some of the NCLT related approval should come much before that.”

PwC India Aims to Grow Revenue 3x

Our Bureau

Mumbai: PwC India is targeting a quantum expansion in operations, with plans to hire 20,000 new employees and boosting annual revenue threefold in the next five years.

As part of its Vision 2030 strategy, the professional services firm said on Tuesday it would invest more than 5% of annual revenue in technology, innovation, and capability building.

PwC India is betting on digital transformation, sustainability, risk and regulatory, cloud, and cybersecurity, for growth.

“India’s growth story continues to inspire confidence—and we remain deeply committed to being a part of it,” said Sanjeev Krishan, chairperson, PwC in India. “Over the past few years, we’ve made focused investments in our people, capabilities, and partnerships to better serve the evolving needs of our clients. Vision 2030 builds on this momentum while embracing emerging areas of opportunity, as we double down on our efforts to support India’s transformation and deliver sustained outcomes.”

ET in January reported PwC India recorded a revenue of about ₹9,200 crore in FY24. The firm currently has 30,000 employees.

As part of the talent acquisition plan, the firm will be expanding its hiring footprint beyond metropolitan hubs into Tier-2 and Tier-3 cities, in line with the government’s push to boost local economies and spread job creation.

“As our clients transform, so must we—and that begins with our people,” said Krishan.

“We’re focused on building a future-ready workforce by expanding access to learning, prioritising women in leadership, and creating inclusive growth journeys that allow our people to thrive—from the campus to the boardroom.”

PwC India will allocate 1% of revenue to upskilling employees and partners, while also scaling sectoral and digital capabilities.

Thermax in Tie-up to Offer Green H2 Tech

New Delhi: Homegrown Thermax has partnered with Norway-based HydrogenPro to supply, install and commission alkaline electrolyser systems in India. In a statement, Thermax said it will also provide after-sales services of alkaline electrolyser systems based on HydrogenPro’s technology.

An alkaline electrolysis system helps produce green hydrogen by splitting water into hydrogen and oxygen through the use of direct current power.

Thermax will engineer and manufacture key systems and balance-of-plant components of the electrolyser for integration with stacks through a comprehensive technology transfer.—PTI

Sebi Rejects Anil Ambani’s Settlement Plea

Reuters

Mumbai: India’s market regulator has rejected a plea by industrialist Anil Ambani to settle charges related to investments in lender Yes Bank, potentially exposing him to at least a ₹18.28 billion ($208.4 million) penalty, according to documents reviewed by Reuters.

The case relates to ₹21.5 billion ($245.3 million) invested by Ambani’s Reliance Mutual Fund between 2016-2019 in Yes Bank’s additional tier-1 bonds, which were written-off when the bank was declared insolvent in 2020.

Reliance MF was sold to Nippon Life Insurance in 2019 and charges pre-date the sale.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) said the investment was made in exchange for loans from Yes Bank to other Anil Ambani group companies, according to regulatory notice.

Rejecting Ambani’s pleas to settle the charges without admitting guilt, Sebi said on July 7 that the fund’s conduct caused a loss of ₹18.28 billion investor wealth and had a ‘market wide impact’.

Anil Ambani—the younger brother of billionaire Mukesh Ambani—is facing renewed scrutiny of dealings between his firms and Yes Bank, which was declared insolvent in 2020 and rescued by a group of lenders in a plan approved by the central bank.

Last month, India’s top crime fighting agency searched locations linked to the group as part of a scheme to siphon off ₹30 billion in loans from Yes Bank, Reuters reported. A proposal by Anil Ambani, his son Jai Anmol Ambani, and former Yes Bank chief executive Rana Kapoor to settle has not been accepted.

Sebi has informed Ambani and his son that it will pass directions asking them to compensate the investors, documents showed.
